What Can I Do With A Major In...?

Studio Art
Our four-year program in Studio Art is unique. Our focus on technical, critical, and professional skills prepares graduates for a wide range of art and photo related careers and/or pursuing graduate studies. Students develop their skills and ideas as art-makers within a contemporary cultural context.

Photography Specialization
Photography specialization majors will gain knowledge and experience of photographic techniques and concepts that will prepare them for careers in Photo Journalism, Fine Art Photography, Alternative Processes, Color Photo, On Assignment and Large Format Photography.

Studio Art Specialization
Studio Art specialization majors prepare for careers such as professional artist, gallery or museum restorer or a career in managing an arts organization (arts management).
